Dear Atharva Belnekar

I am pleased to extend an offer of internship on behalf of Commondove Organization. As discussed, we'd like to welcome you aboard as a member of our team for Commondove, as a College Representative intern. The work allotted to you may get modified and there could be several different tasks that you would be asked to do, and it would be helpful for you to gain skills like writing skills, interpersonal skills, leadership skills, managerial skills, and communication skills.

You will get a testimonial certificate and a provisional letter of recommendation for your internship, upon successful completion of the internship tasks. Duration of your internship is three months but it could get extended according to work requirements and as per your wish to continue later on.

Terms and Conditions

- Please note that you have to complete the given tasks in the stipulated time and if work is not satisfactory, it may lead to termination of internship agreement with immediate effect without any liabilities on the part of Commondove.
- There are no fixed hours of working, so you can choose the time to work yourself. And as the work is done cannot be measured in terms of working hours, it would be measured according to the part of the tasks performed.
- You must daily report the work you did during the day. Just drop a message between 9 PM to 12 AM informing the work done during the day, even when you took a day off you must message that you took the day off.

Commondove is a not-for-profit startup and it requires your time not just as an intern, but as a contributor, as part of the core team. We hope that you will keep up the work and support us to support the social causes that require youth's support.

To officially acknowledge your acceptance of this offer, please reply to this mail stating that you accept this offer and your internship starting date would be the date on which we receive your mail.

We are happy to have you join our team and also hope that you will strive to become an integral part of the core team.

Sincerely,
Ankita Nirwan
Director
